- Artist

Hong Kyoungtack (b.1968) graduated from the Department of Painting at Kyungwon University (1995). In 2000, through his first solo exhibition 《Shrine》 at Insa Art Space, he began to get the spotlight by showcasing the 'Pen' and 'Library' Series. Kyoung Tack Hong is obsessed with an extreme sense of sophistication, paranoia of perfection, and solidity of painting with hard work and devotion. His works give us a strong sense of visual catharsis through a tight and constructive screen composition with brilliant color. 'Pen', 'Library', and 'Funkestra' Series have the reductive abstraction and divergent pictoriality with intense colors and the solid composition.

- Explanation

The pens are so densely packed that they seem to pop out of the cup. Whereas previous works showed a paranoid obsession while using sharp nibs, this work shows another form by expressing physical limitations: pens in cups with closed caps, and worn-out pencil tips.
