• Artist

Hong Kyoungtack (b.1968) majored in painting at Kyungwon University and is currently working in Seoul. In his first solo exhibition SHRINE held at Insa Art Space in 2000, the 'Pens' series and 'Library' series, which are widely known to us today, were presented. It began to attract attention in the art world. In 2005, in the solo exhibition Funkchestra to commemorate the reopening of the Arko Art Museum. It received great attention as a work that expresses melodies with color and format, and combines images, symbols, and texts of celebrities with them. Since then, he has established himself as a leading Korean artist through solo and group exhibitions at major domestic and foreign museums and major galleries, and is still active today.

• Explanation

In the artist's 'Funkchestra' series, there is a representative of each artistic genre. From Michael Jackson to John Lennon, Prince, Madonna, Audrey Hepburn, BTS, and many other pop stars. In "Gogh-Starry Starry Night," the work is centered around Van Gogh, a representative of Impressionism and considered one of the greatest painters in the history of Western art. He divided the different parts of Gogh's self-portrait into equally sized fan shapes and drew repeated and symmetrical patterns around them. These patterns have a sense of rhyme and rhythm and serve as the musical element of Hong's paintings.
