• Artist

Hong Kyoungtack (b.1968) majored in painting at Kyungwon University and is currently working in Seoul. In his first solo exhibition SHRINE held at Insa Art Space in 2000, the 'Pens' series and 'Library' series, which are widely known to us today, were presented. It began to attract attention in the art world. In 2005, in the solo exhibition Funkchestra to commemorate the reopening of the Arko Art Museum. It received great attention as a work that expresses melodies with color and format, and combines images, symbols, and texts of celebrities with them. Since then, he has established himself as a leading Korean artist through solo and group exhibitions at major domestic and foreign museums and major galleries, and is still active today.

• Explanation

The artist's depiction of the study appears to be a physically limited space, but the inherent conceptual world is infinitely expanding. <Library-Paradise> features a solitary figure with books with a smooth plastic-like texture on a seemingly enclosed shelf. The books around the figure look as if they are about to spill over, and the expression of the figure in the narrow bookcase looks somewhat uneasy, contrary to the title of the work, 'paradise'. Unlike the trapped figure below, the pigeons, a symbol of peace, seem to be flying freely from high above and enjoying 'paradise'.
