• Artist

Hong Kyoungtack (b.1968) majored in painting at Kyungwon University and is currently working in Seoul. In his first solo exhibition SHRINE held at Insa Art Space in 2000, the 'Pens' series and 'Library' series, which are widely known to us today, were presented. It began to attract attention in the art world. In 2005, in the solo exhibition Funkchestra to commemorate the reopening of the Arko Art Museum. It received great attention as a work that expresses melodies with color and format, and combines images, symbols, and texts of celebrities with them. Since then, he has established himself as a leading Korean artist through solo and group exhibitions at major domestic and foreign museums and major galleries, and is still active today.

• Explanation

The 'pencil' or 'pen,' which fills the canvas with fancy primary colours, is an object that "draws out the emptiness, which is a by-product of the momentary splendour, the objects of spying, the arrangement of childish and tactile objects, along with the erotic." His art material, 'pen,' may seem too simple, but the artist deals with modern people's dual and obsessive desires with allegories of flowers, skulls and dolls appearing in the form of pen caps, a stacked screen composition, and the seriousness of writing mood.
