• Artist

Hong Kyoungtack (b.1968) majored in painting at Kyungwon University and is currently working in Seoul. In his first solo exhibition SHRINE held at Insa Art Space in 2000, the 'Pens' series and 'Library' series, which are widely known to us today, were presented. It began to attract attention in the art world. In 2005, in the solo exhibition Funkchestra to commemorate the reopening of the Arko Art Museum. It received great attention as a work that expresses melodies with color and format, and combines images, symbols, and texts of celebrities with them. Since then, he has established himself as a leading Korean artist through solo and group exhibitions at major domestic and foreign museums and major galleries, and is still active today.

• Explanation

In order for the work, which is composed of a myriad of details, not to be simply a collection of patterns and images or a haphazard listing of motifs, the artist imposed a certain order on the canvas. The order that the artist has internalized in his format shows a screen composition that poses the space rationally. The artist's arrangement through a certain spacing or order is a kind of mechanical order based on simple repetition. Relational composition and mechanical repetition are different ways of understanding the world and organizing it into images in art. In the case of the artist, he seems to be using a third order in his paintings that fuses these two orders.
