• Artist

Hong Kyoungtack (b.1968) majored in painting at Kyungwon University and is currently working in Seoul. In his first solo exhibition SHRINE held at Insa Art Space in 2000, the 'Pens' series and 'Library' series, which are widely known to us today, were presented. It began to attract attention in the art world. In 2005, in the solo exhibition Funkchestra to commemorate the reopening of the Arko Art Museum. It received great attention as a work that expresses melodies with color and format, and combines images, symbols, and texts of celebrities with them. Since then, he has established himself as a leading Korean artist through solo and group exhibitions at major domestic and foreign museums and major galleries, and is still active today.

• Explanation

The patterns and figures in the work are present with equal intensity in different places on the square plane, even if they are different in type. It is the principle of flatness that allows the numerous patterns in the work to become an art of detail, beyond a general arrangement. By drawing the various patterns with equal intensity in every space on the screen, the surface of the painting is in a state of force equilibrium. Whether in a visual or metaphorical sense, there is always something to see on the canvas no matter where you look, both vertically and horizontally.
